

The Impact of the Psypioneer Project

History

- 1999 - Psychic Pioneer Project launched on temporary web site, then on dot.com. Closed 2001.
- 2004 - Psypioneer Newsletter begins.
- 2014 - completes ten years as a journal. 600 direct subscribers

The first issue

PSYPIONEER

An Electronic Newsletter from London

Volume 1 No 1 May 2004

In this issue

- | | | |
|---|---|---|
| 1 | SPR was conceived by Spiritualist | 1 |
| 2 | Millions of witches killed- or possibly not | 3 |
| 3 | In the Historian's Chair – Paul Gaunt | 4 |
| 4 | The Psychic Pioneer Project reincarnates | 8 |
-

SPR was conceived by Spiritualist

A leading London Spiritualist, whose name is not used in official SPR publicity, conceived the Society for Psychological Research, London.

Edmund Dawson Rogers was manager of the National Press Agency and business controller of the newspaper “Light” founded in 1881. In his brief, posthumously published, memoirs he recalled:

“ Professor W.F. Barrett was spending the night with me at my residence in Finchley, and we sat up to a late hour while he recounted some of his psychological experiences. In the course of his narration he mentioned the

Colleagues

Gaunt

Lis

Willey's

The latest issue

PSYPIONEER JOURNAL

Founded by Leslie Price

Edited by
Paul J. Gaunt

Archived by
Garth Willey

EST 2004

Volume 10, No. 05: May 2014

- 139 – Healing the Soul – Book Review – Jim Pym
- 142 – The Accordion Playing of D. D. Home – Herbert Thurston, S. J.
- 156 – Update on the PHCP conference
- 157 – Spiritualist Ambulances in the Great War – note L.P

- Some archives still unsafe
- Republication can change much of our perspective

- Commercialisation a blessing?
- A medium in the family
- Information and fairness